C144

Excommunication of MARCION, bishop and heretic, who claimed that there was total opposition and no connection at all between the Old Testament and the New Testament, between the God of Jews and the God of Christians

Heresy of MARCIONISM. Begun in 144 by MARCION - is the heresy which held that the God of the Jews was not the God of the Christians, nor the Father of Christ. It imposed a rigorous asceticism on its followers. It continued for about 4 centuries and was condemned with MANICHAEISM.
